Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

This application has been filed with informal drawings which are acceptable for examination purposes only. Formal drawings will be required when the application is allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 3 to 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Allen. Allen shows a bolster 10 of a cylindrical form that can be used for therapeutic purposes. The bolster 10 is formed by rolling a sheet of foam material 24 around a rigid inner tube 12 to form a foam covering 18 for the tube. The ends of the sheet 18 have a series of cuts 29, 30 that form a set of fingers which can be tucked into the ends of the pipe 12. As shown in the cross sectional view of Figure 7, the resulting bolster has an inner hollow section of larger diameter than the ends of the bolster, with cylindrical passages being formed at the ends which allow air to pass into and out of the interior of the bolster. Whenever a load is placed upon the bolster the pipe 12 will inherently be deformed to some degree, forcing air from the interior of the bolster through the end passages, upon removal of the load the pipe will recover its shape and allow air to return to the interior of the bolster. Note the dimensions specified in column 5, lines 40 to 54.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 and 2 are allowed.

Claim 7 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Redfield, Frazier, Iannucci, Schmitt, and Hanes show cylindrical bolsters which are of general interest.
